Frankfurt

Conversation evening with Robert Sheehan

2 October 2019, 6:00 p.m.

Daheim in der Affentorschänke,
Frankfurt-Sachsenhausen

Dear IMA's and guests,

It is a great pleasure to invite you to a conversation evening with experienced coach Robert Sheehan. You know that we already had an interesting and lively workshop with him in March of this year. Following the positive feedback from this event we both decided to plan a conversation evening in order that our members have a further opportunity to practice their English.

He has an extensive knowledge of British culture and politics and a great sense of humor. He will prepare for an interesting evening with a central theme, although our discussions should not be restricted to one subject.

We will meet in the Affentorschänke, where "tradition meets modernity" at a high level. Given that the Munich Beer Festival is currently underway in Frankfurt you are welcome to wear corresponding clothing.

Best regards,

Lilian Helbig

Regional Head Frankfurt

The name Affentor has its probable origin by the name "Ave-Maria Tor".

In the late Middle Ages, the travelers, the winegrowers and shepherds went through the southern city gate. Robbers and highwaymen made the area outside the city walls unsafe and dangerous.

So before leaving the safe city, they said an Ave-Maria. This resulted in abbreviated "Ave-Tor" and later in Frankfurt the "Affentor (monkey-gate)". The old historic gatehouse was destroyed in 1809, and it was not until much later that the well-known houses were rebuilt that make up the Affentor.

The building of the Affentor-Schänke is mentioned for the first time in the year 1760 and was probably already an inn at that time.
